N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. † Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bond and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

* The falling off in the number of Country Institutes is only apparent. There is really a steady increase; but this year there is a larger proportion than usual of new institutes, the statistics of which are not included above.

† Memo.—The sum of £1,377 10s. 8d., to make up the grant to 20s. in the £, was paid in the latter part of 1885.

NOTE.—In making up the estimate of population in New South Wales, allowance has been made for unrecorded emigration since 1881—the date of the last Census; if this allowance had not been made, the population of that colony would have been set down as 980,573; moreover, in March, 1886, a fresh Census was taken in New Zealand, and in May, 1886, one was taken in Queensland; the populations of those colonies have, therefore, been corrected on the basis of the results then obtained. In the three colonies named, the population estimates are probably nearly correct, but there is little doubt that the figures given for the remaining colonies are somewhat in excess of the truth.

[1] A correction has been made in the estimated area of New Zealand, and consequently the figures for that colony differ slightly from those of last year.

[2] On the 30th September, 1886, the estimated population of Victoria was 1,020,502, viz., 547,312 males and 473,190 females.

[3] On the 30th June, 1886, the estimated population of New South Wales was 981,200, viz., 540,890 males and 440,310 females.

[4] On the 1st May, 1886, the enumerated population of Queensland, with an allowance of 2½ per cent. for persons supposed to have been overlooked in the collection, was 330,924, viz., 195,102 males and 135,822 females.

[5] On the 1st September, 1886, the estimated population of South Australia was 316,660.

[6] On the 28th March, 1886, the enumerated population of New Zealand, exclusive of residents in the Chatham Islands and of Maoris, was 578,283, viz., 312,115 males and 266,168 females; the Maoris at the same time numbered 41,432, viz., 22,765 males and 18,667 females.

NOTE.—The Immigration and Emigration in this table is by sea only, except in the case of South Australia, for which colony an estimate for overland emigration is included. In the case of the other colonies no attempt has been made to determine the number of persons going overland from one colony to another.

[1] The figures in these columns understate the truth. Many persons leave all the colonies by sea without their departure being noted. It has been authoritatively estimated in New South Wales that the number so leaving that colony in 1885 amounted to 5,488.

[2] In consequence of the Emigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, the figures in these columns are too high. Where the minus sign (−) appears it indicates that the emigrants exceeded the immigrants by the number against which it is placed.

[3] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1885 was 40,689, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 8,272. The excess in favour of departures was thus 32,417.

NOTE.—The financial year terminates on the 30th June in Victoria, but on the 31st December in all the other colonies. The net revenue is given for Victoria, but the gross revenue for New South Wales and probably also for the other colonies. See paragraph 8 of Report ante.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, licences, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, but not audited, the figures for Victoria during the year ended 30th June, 1886, were as follow:—Revenue from Customs, £2,004,458; other taxes, £629,052; from Crown lands, £563,607; from Railways, £2,306,791; from Post and Telegraphs, £394,184; from other sources, £518,313—Total revenue, £6,416,405; total expenditure, £6,513,634. The estimated mean population of the same period was 991,640; therefore the revenue per head was £6 9s. 5d.; the expenditure per head was £6 11s. 4d.; and the taxation per head was £2 13s. 1d.

[3] The proportion of the revenue of Victoria and New Zealand derived from "Other Taxes" and "Post and Telegraphs" has been partly estimated.

[4] Including revenue from "Licences"—(viz., £50,036)—properly included, but which appears to have been omitted in previous years.

[5] Exclusive of revenue from gold-fields.

[6] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1884-5 (960,079) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

[1] On the 30th June, 1885, the Public Debt of Victoria was £30,127,382. The estimated population at that date was 1,009,753, and the approximate revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £6,416,405. The amount of indebtedness per head was thus £29 16s. 9d., and the debt was equivalent to 4·69 years' revenue.

[2] Including a loan of £5,500,000, raised in London in October, 1885, but which had not been brought to account in Sydney up to the end of 1885.

[3] In July, 1886, New South Wales floated in London a fresh loan of £5,500,000, and in March, 1885, Queensland floated one for £1,500,000.

[4] Including unexpended balances of loan moneys, amounting to £2,441,520.

[5] Including the old provincial loans of New Zealand, raised prior to 1871, and the unspent balances of loan moneys, which together amounted to £12,514,701. No particulars of the purposes to which the former were applied are available.

[6] In calculating these results, the populations on the 31st December shown in the fifth column of Table I. have been used.

[7] In calculating these results, the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.

NOTE.—The figures are for the year ended 30th June, 1885, in Victoria; for that ended 31st March, 1886, in New Zealand; and for that ended 31st December in the other colonies. On the 30th June, 1886, the extent of lines open in Victoria had increased to 1,743 miles, and the cost of construction to £23,903,900; whilst the gross receipts for 1885-6 amounted to £2,329,126, the working expenses to £1,310,538, and the net receipts to £1,018,588. The latter was equivalent to 4·36 per cent. of the capital cost.

[1] The following lengths of private railway are included, viz., 45 miles in New South Wales, 60 miles in Western Australia, 48 miles in Tasmania; and 41 miles, together with 80 miles under construction, in New Zealand. The cost of the private lines in Tasmania—amounting to £140,129, together with the receipts during the year, amounting to £16,366, and the expenditure, amounting to £6,325—are included in the figures for that colony; but similar information has not been supplied for New South Wales, Western Australia, and New Zealand, and therefore the figures for those colonies, except as regards the length of railways, relate to the Government lines only.

[2] The calculations in this column are based on the mean of the amounts of capital cost at the beginning and end of the year.

[3] Exclusive of 35 miles of Government tramway, constructed at a capital cost of £708,110, the gross receipts from which amounted to £223,340, and the working expenses to £207,995.

[4] Including expenditure on lines in progress.

[5] Including railways authorized.

[6] This is below the true proportion, as the capital cost, on which the rate is based, includes expenditure on lines in progress, which were necessarily unproductive.

[7] The minus (—) sign indicates a net loss, or excess of working expenses over receipts.

For particulars of the terms and conditions under which such land is held, see Victorian Year-Book 1884-5, paragraph 750, and Appendix D.

[8] It is believed that these figures refer chiefly to lands in respect to which Crown Grants have been issued either to the original Maori possessors, or to Europeans or Maoris who have purchased from them under certain Native Land Acts.

[9] Of this extent, about 16,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them.; and 51,367 acres was held under "Perpetual Lease."

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and undenominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational (private) schools. Public instruction free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. The prescribed school age differs in the various colonies—in Victoria it is from 6 to 15 years, in New South Wales from 6 to 14, in Queensland from 6 to 12, in South Australia from 7 to 13, in Tasmania from 7 to 14, and in New Zealand from 7 to 13 years. For a complete account of the educational systems of the various colonies, see Victorian Year-Book 1880-81, pp. 431 to 459.

TABLE XV.—AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS, 1885-6.—LAND IN CULTIVATION.

 The Agricultural Statistics in most of the colonies are collected in the months of February or March of each year. The present returns are for those months of 1886. In calculating the rates of tillage per head, the population at the 31st December, 1885, has been taken.

NOTE.—Land in fallow is included in the total area under tillage in all the colonies, except New South Wales; and land under permanent artificial grasses in all the colonies, except Queensland, Western Australia, and New Zealand. See also Notes 2, 3, and 10.

[1] Including beans and pease, except in the case of New South Wales and New Zealand.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—Victoria, 327,210 acres; New South Wales, 137,798 acres; Queensland (not returned); South Australia, 23,217 acres; Western Australia (not returned); Tasmania, 181,203 acres. For extent of such land in New Zealand, see Note 10.

[3] In the returns of some of the colonies, this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—Victoria, 209,225 acres; New South Wales (not returned); Queensland, 10,796 acres; South Australia, 450,536 acres; Western Australia, 1,733 acres; Tasmania, 18,681 acres; New Zealand, 219,270 acres.

[4] No Agricultural Statistics having been collected in South Australia in 1885-6, the figures for the previous year have been given for that colony.

[5] Including 639 acres under turnips, carrots, parsnips, cabbage, and beet, which produced 6,479 tons; 1,346 acres under mangel wurzel, which produced 24,129 tons; 1,740 acres under onions, which produced 10,209 tons; 1,866 acres under tobacco, which produced 13,734 cwt. 216 acres under chicory, which produced 1,239 tons; 896 acres under hops, which produced 5,501 cwt.; 2,942 acres under grass seeds, which produced about 45,000 bushels; &c.

[6] Including 1,603 acres under tobacco, which produced 22,947 cwt.; 15,419 acres (of which 6,836 acres were unproductive) under sugar-cane, which produced 369,280 cwt. of sugar; 7,734 acres under orangeries, which produced 8,749,256 dozen oranges; and 19,245 acres under gardens and orchards.

[7] Including 59,186 acres under sugar-cane, of which 38,557 acres were productive, and yielded 55,796 tons of sugar; 330 acres under arrowroot, which produced 551,912 lbs.; 633 acres under oranges, which produced 658,549 dozen; 1,034 acres under bananas, which produced 1,660,180 dozen; 365 acres under pine apples, which produced 122,263 dozen; 117 acres under tobacco, which produced 1,330 cwt.

[8] Including 3,680 acres under turnips, which produced 30,913 tons; 904 acres under mangel wurzel, which yielded 12,807 tons; and 8,198 acres in gardens and orchards. The remainder consisted of fenced and cleared land, not strictly under tillage, and devoted to pastoral purposes.

[9] Including 10,530 acres under pease and beans; 3,437 acres under mangolds, beet, carrots, parsnips, &c.; 714 acres under hops; and 34 acres under tobacco; and 21,908 acres under gardens and orchards.

[10] In the figures for New Zealand, the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 5,424,853 acres—of which about one-half had been, and the other half had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor is it included in the total area under tillage, as in the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 6,690,828 acres, or to 11·63 acres per head of the population.

[11] No account taken.

[1] It is believed by the Registrar-General of Fiji that the births, deaths, and marriages here given are less than those which actually occurred.

[2] The total area alienated at the end of 1885 was 377,090 acres. The amount realized by the State was only £26,259, which, however, represents the price of but a small proportion of the acreage alienated. The majority of the grants issued were for lands acquired by whites and others previously to annexation, and these received their titles at the nominal price of One shilling.

[3] In addition to the live stock referred to in these columns, about 11,400 angora goats were kept on the islands.
